From the Pen of Inspiration

The Spirit was not given – nor can it ever be bestowed – to supersede the Bible; for the Scriptures explicitly state that the word of God is the standard by which all teaching and experience must be tested. Says the apostle John, "Believe not every spirit, but try the sprits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world." 1 John 4:1. And Isiah declares, "To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them." Isaiah 8:20. (The Great Controversy, p. vii.)

In immediate connection with the scenes of the great day of God, the Lord by the prophet Joel has promised a special manifestation of His Spirit. Joel 2:28. This prophecy received a partial fulfillment in the outpouring of the Spirit on the Day of Pentecost; but it will reach its full accomplishment in the manifestation of divine grace which will attend the closing work of the gospel. (The Great Controversy, pp. vii, ix.)

MEMBERS PROPHECY STUDY CLASS: Tuesdays at 6:00 PM, we are studying a 24-part study designed specifically to help our members move from "student" to "teacher." This series focuses on building the confidence you need to lead your own Bible studies on Daniel and Revelation with people in our community. By exploring the deep correlations between Matthew 24 and the end-time prophecies of Revelation, we will bridge the gap between personal understanding and active ministry. Using Steven Bohr's study on Matthew 24 alongside insights from the Spirit of Prophecy, you will master the events leading to the close of probation and see how these prophetic themes intertwine. Our goal is to ensure you feel fully prepared, comfortable, and equipped to share these vital truths with clarity and ease. For questions please contact Matt Burton at (208) 416-8138.
