Today's Message

A legalist is anyone who is hoping to be saved but who is living life apart from Jesus.

"For Christ is the end of the law...as a means of righteousness (right relationship to God) for everyone who trusts in...and relies on Him"
Romans 10:4, Amplified Bible.

Some, who have found overcoming unattainable, have adjusted their theology to match their experience, concluding that overcoming isn't possible or expected.

Perhaps they are missing one of the greatest avenues that God has in mind to enable them to be overcomers—that of coming to the end of their own resources.

It is because we thought we were doing pretty well and because we figured we had plenty of time and because we have thought we could become overcomers if we tried a little harder and a little longer that we have waited so long to surrender, to submit ourselves to God, to give up on the hope that we could ever succeed in our own strength. "They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick" Jesus said in Matthew 9:12.

Is it possible that one of the major reasons why we are not yet whole is that we have not yet admitted to being sick and so have not come to the Great Physician for healing?

Think about this: No army ever surrendered to the other side while they still thought they could win the war. Surrender comes only after all hope of winning is gone.

The reason why we have not surrendered in the first place, or not stayed surrendered in the second place, is that our legalistic natures keep rising to the top, and we keep hoping that perhaps if we fight a little harder or a little longer, we can win by ourselves.
