

Buena Vista's Summer Boost Camp

This camp will be run by Buena Vista Seventh-Day Adventist School and established by Learning and Well-Being Support Staff, Kennita Lewandowski. The purpose is to provide extra academic support to students as they prepare for the upcoming school year and teach important social emotional skills. The concept is to continue to stimulate the students' minds in a manageable fashion while preparing them for concepts they will be learning in their upcoming school year. This is a Christian camp, so we will be teaching biblical concepts and praying with our campers.
