Pastor’s Corner:

We all face an endless number of choices and challenges every day. Sometimes our response to these situations is good, sometimes not. When temptations come our way, however, we can stand on the Word of God knowing that Jesus was in all things tempted as we are, yet He lived a sinless life to overcome the world and offer us salvation.

I would ask you today to think about some situation in which you saw the hand of God at work. Remember that. Treasure it. Share it with someone. Don't be ashamed of your past, for it is God's testimony and not yours. And don't play the judge if someone shares a testimony with you, because the church is meant to be a house of prayer and reconciliation, not a courtroom, for ALL have sinned and come short of the glory of God.

When the state of the world today suggests that we stand on the brink of eternity, let us refocus our lives on Jesus, our only safeguard. My prayer is that we renew our commitment and put aside the things that stand between ourselves and the Savior. Amen

Scott Winistorfer
