

Offering Spotlight: Washington Youth— Education

Tithing is one way we partner with God in caring for His church and Growing Hearts for Jesus in the next generation. As Scripture reminds us, we are to “train up a child in the way he should go” (Proverbs 22:6). Today’s loose offering is for Washington Youth Education. Your generosity helps provide student aid and strengthens spiritual programming. It also supports Christ-centered learning environments where students are encouraged to grow academically and in their walk with Jesus. Thank you for returning tithe and for your generosity. You may give today through Adventist Giving, the QR code on the screen, or with the tithe envelopes provided by the church and mark them Washington Youth: Education.

Partnering for Eternity (PFE) builds meaningful mentor-student relationships. Students receive tuition support, and mentors get the joy of passing on their wisdom while investing in the next generation.

We're seeking new mentors to join this life-shaping ministry. Mentors must be age 55+, in good health and able to volunteer up to 1 hr/week. Students are responsible for selecting their mentor but having a list of willing participants helps with this process.

To sign up, contact Kim White at 360-204-1350 or visit her at the KACS's Back to School Blast on Sunday, September 13, with an info session at 2:30.
