Truths We Hold Dear

As a Christian church, Seventh-day Adventists are a faith community rooted in the beliefs described by the Holy Scriptures summarized as follows.

One God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit, a unity of three co-eternal persons. (Deut. 6:4; Matthew. 28:19)

The death of Jesus on Calvary is the atoning sacrifice for our sins and by God's grace through faith in His shed blood we are saved from sin and its penalty. (Ephesians 2: 8, 9)

By accepting Jesus Christ as Lord and personal Savior, our sins are forgiven and we receive a new heart where-by we renounce the sinful ways of the world. (John 1:12)

The righteousness of Christ, our Intercessor in the heav-enly sanctuary, by His transforming grace empowers us to live a loving, Christ-centered life in the home and before the world. (Heb. 4:15, 16)

The Bible is God's inspired Word, the only rule of faith and practice for the Christian. (2 Peter 1:21)

The Ten Commandments are a transcript of the character of God and a revelation of His will, including the observance of the seventh day of the week as the Sabbath of the Lord and the memorial of creation. (Exodus 20:3-17)

The soon coming of Jesus is the "blessed hope." (I Thess. 4:16, 17)

The Spirit of Prophecy, a spiritual gift, is an identifying mark of the remnant church. (Revelation 14:12; 19:10)

Tithes and offerings support church organization. (Malachi 3:8-10)

The human body is the temple of the Holy Spirit and should be cared for in a manner pleasing to the Lord. (I Cor. 10:31)

Life choices should be governed by Biblical principles. (Phil. 2:5-8)

Baptism by immersion as an expression of one's faith. (Acts 2:37-38)

The brotherhood of, and love for, the entire human race. (2 Peter 1:5-7)

Thoughtful Quotes

The important future is before us. To meet its trials and temptations, and to perform its duties, will require great faith, energy, and perseverance. But we may triumph gloriously; for not one watching, praying, believing soul will be ensnared by the devices of the enemy. All heaven is interested in our welfare, and waits our demand upon its wisdom and strength. Every opposing influence, whether open or secret, may be successfully resisted, “not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts.” God is just as willing now as anciently to work through human efforts, and to accomplish great things through weak instrumentalities. We shall not gain the victory through numbers, but through full surrender of the soul to Jesus.

Now, while mercy still lingers, while Jesus is making intercession for us, let us make thorough work for eternity.
The Watchman, December 25, 1906
