Witnessing Using Your Own Bible Marking Strategy

Your Sabbath School leaders are preparing a new Sabbath morning Bible study class to meet the personal needs of newer members and others wanting to improve their Bible witnessing skills in putting together key Bible verses and themes that address spiritual questions and needs. Bring your own Bible and learn to practice handling it through a Bible marking strategy. The first class will take place next week in the Inez Wrenn school with Pastor Snider, David Huber, and Mark Anderson.

Young Adult Bible Study

The next meeting for the Young Adult Bible study will be Friday, September 25, at 6:30 pm. The meeting will take place at the Kranenburgs' house at 2801 Cook Road in Crossville. Call 305-804-7884 for more information.

Witnessing Using Your Own Bible Marking Strategy

The Question:

"Is your sword sharp and easy to handle when confronted with the needs of other people around you?"
(Ephesians 6:17)

Your Sabbath School leaders are preparing a new Sabbath morning Bible study class to meet the personal needs of newer members and others wanting to improve their Bible witnessing skills in:

- organizing key Bible themes that address spiritual needs like fear, depression, low self-esteem and more, with effective promises to share
- putting together key Bible verses relating to distinctive themes like the divinity of Jesus Christ, OT prophecies of the Messiah, signs of the Second Coming, and more.

Bring your own Bible and learn to sharpen and handle it through a Bible marking strategy.

The first meeting will be next week, September 26, at 9:30 am in the Inez Wrenn SDA School with Pastor Rob, David Huber, and Mark Anderson. We hope to see you there!

The Outcome:

"A worker... rightly handling the Word of Truth."
(2 Timothy 2:15)
