Bonded with Jesus: The Relationship that Matters Most of All -
Conclusion: Recap of Sermon on October 31, 2026

Part One of Elder Glen White's sermon traced God's promise of redemption from humanity's fall in Eden to the hope of eternal life through Jesus Christ. In the Garden of Eden Adam and Eve disobeyed God after the serpent questioned His command and promised that eating the forbidden fruit would make them like God. Their disobedience brought fear, guilt, separation, and expulsion from paradise. Yet even in judgment, God promised that the woman's seed would bruise the serpent's head. This promise of a coming deliverer became a beacon of hope.

Part Two of the sermon told how as generations passed, people continued to turn away from God. The world became corrupt and was destroyed by the flood, while Noah and his family were spared. After Babel, God called Abraham and guided His people through patriarchs and prophets, giving promises about the deliverer who would restore what sin had taken away.

Elder White recalled John's life with Jesus. John left his fishing nets to follow Jesus, witnessed His compassion, teaching, and miracles, and found peace, joy, and fulfillment in His presence. The disciples struggled to understand Jesus' predictions of betrayal and death, and His crucifixion devastated them.

Though innocent, Jesus was rejected by the crowd, condemned by religious leaders, scourged, mocked, and nailed to a cross. He prayed for those who crucified Him. When a condemned criminal acknowledged Jesus' innocence and asked to be remembered in His kingdom, Jesus promised him paradise. As Jesus died, darkness and an earthquake accompanied the moment, and a witness declared, "Truly, this was the Son of God." However, the disciples' grief turned to joy when they learned that the tomb was empty, and they encountered the risen Jesus. After His ascension and the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, they knew their Lord remained with them. His sacrifice is presented as God's love for the world and the way to everlasting life.

In conclusion Elder White told that while John was exiled on Patmos, He was reminded that Jesus will return, the dead in Christ will rise, and believers will be with the Lord forever. Hallelujah!

Call to Action: Now is the time to come to Jesus and commit to follow Him wholeheartedly.

Herbal Cleansers

Herbs can be very useful in a cleansing program. Cleansing diets are very important to help rid the body of harmful accumulations of toxins. They can be caused from eating the wrong foods, air pollution, drugs, or from diseases which cause putrefaction and decay in the stomach and intestines. These germs can cause buildup waste in the bloodstream. These excess wastes that are not eliminated can turn to solid matter or slime. A build-up of toxic materials in the colon will eventually pollute the rest of the body and contribute to many health conditions such as general feeling of tiredness, nausea, depression, inability to do the necessary daily functions. A completely clean colon is necessary to help rid the body of disease. Many nutritionists recommend using herbs to empty the bowels before beginning a fast.

Here are some examples of herbs that are effective in cleansing the colon and the body in general.

Cascara Sagrada
: Stimulates intestinal muscles to help trigger muscle contractions known as peristalsis to push fecal matter through the bowels.

Goldenseal:
Has a cleansing action on the body. The herb destroys poisons and strengthens the body.

Fenugreek
: Dissolves hardened mucus, kills infections, and it is rich in vitamins and minerals.

Rhubarb
: Is a stimulant and toning laxative

Yellow Dock*:
Purifies the blood, stimulates digestion, improves liver function.

Dandelion:
Gives nutrition to the body, destroys acids in the blood, and eliminates toxins.

Chickweed
: Helps curb appetite, dissolves plaque in blood vessels, strengthens stomach and bowels.

"He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth." – Psalm 104:14
