Connecting with the Church

We hope this message finds you well and filled with the grace of our Lord. As Pastor/Elders of Eagle SDA Church, we want to extend our heartfelt commitment to serving and supporting each member of our church family.

Here are the ways in which we are available to minister to you:

Bible Study/answer questions you may have: Engage in meaningful and enriching Bible studies to deepen your understanding of God's Word.

Prayer: Seek solace and strength through prayer. We are here to intercede on your behalf and pray with you.

Hospital Visits: Extend our care to those who are unwell or recovering. If you or a loved one is in the hospital, please let us know, and we will be there to offer support and prayer.

Anointing: Experience the healing power of God through anointing. If you are facing physical or emotional challenges, we are available for anointing at your request.

Encouragement: Receive words of encouragement and spiritual guidance during challenging times. Our aim is to uplift and inspire you in your faith journey.

Whether you prefer a phone call, an in-person visit at your home, or a meeting at the church, we are flexible and ready to accommodate your needs.

Feel free to reach out to us directly to schedule a time for any of the above services. Your spiritual growth and well-being are our priorities, and we are honored to be here for you.

Feelings No Evidence of Rejection

October 6 “That I May Know Him” by Ellen G. White

The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them. Psalm 145:18, 19.

I would call your attention to the precious promises in the Word of God. All who are children of God have not the same powers, the same temperaments, the same confidence and boldness. I am glad indeed that our feelings are no evidence that we are not children of God. The enemy will tempt you to think that you have done things that have separated you from God and that He no longer loves you, but our Lord loves us still, and we may know by the words He has placed on record for just such cases as yours. “If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous” (1 John 2:1). “If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness” (1 John 1:9)....

God loves you; and the precious Saviour, who gave Himself for you, will not thrust you from Him because you are tempted and in your weakness may have been overcome. He loves you still.

Peter denied his Lord in the hour of trial, but Jesus did not forsake His poor disciple. Although Peter hated himself, the Lord loved him, and after His resurrection He called him by name and sent him a loving message. O what a kind, loving, compassionate Saviour we have! And He loves us though we err.

Now do not worry yourself out of the arms of the dear Saviour, but rest trustingly in faith. He loves you; He cares for you. He is blessing you and will give you His peace and grace. He is saying to you, “Thy sins be forgiven thee.” You may be depressed with bodily infirmities, but that is not evidence that the Lord is not working in your behalf every day. He will pardon you, and that abundantly. Gather to your soul the sweet promises of God. Jesus is our constant, unfailing friend, and He wants you to trust in Him.... Look away from yourself to the perfection of Christ.^{8Letter 49, 1896.}
