

NPUC Constituency Session 2026 (College Place, WA) — August 23: The North Pacific Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists is hosting its 30th regular constituency session on Sunday, Aug. 23, 2026, at Walla Walla University Church. This is an open meeting and will be live-streamed. To help maintain balanced representation from across the union, participation in the business session and voting are reserved for official delegates. More details are available at npuc.org/30thsession.

Building Homes of Hope and Wholeness: Free Online Course: Strengthen your ministry to families with practical, biblically grounded training. This free online course from the Adventist Learning Community equips pastors, local church leaders, and Family Ministries teams with the knowledge and tools to build stronger marriages, nurture healthy families, support parents, and minister effectively through every stage of life. Learn from experienced Family Ministries leaders while earning continuing education credit at your own pace. Sign up today at news.uccsda.org/homesofhope726.

Free Online Course: Caring: It's not a Spectator Sport: In this free online course from the Adventist Learning Community, Lilya Wagner points out how caring is a Biblical principle, particularly as exemplified in Jesus' life. This course gives examples of caring acts, and provides suggestions for moving toward a caring, action-oriented life. Enroll today at news.uccsda.org/alccaring626

President's Perspective: A Loud Voice, One Voice: One question continues to surface quietly but persistently. In a world filled with constant noise, how will the message of Christ be clearly heard? The issue is not how loud we speak, but whether we are speaking together. Repetition goes only so far. What gives weight to our witness is alignment. Multiple voices in a room sound confusing. The world needs one voice that is clear, steady and true. Read Köhler's perspective from the Adventist Review at news.uccsda.org/loudvoice.

Adventist Digital Evangelism Training — August 22-23: Let's be honest—sharing the gospel in a digital world can feel overwhelming. Where do you even start? That's exactly why ADET exists. Adventist Digital Evangelism Training brings together pastors, communication leaders, and ministry teams for a practical, hands-on experience focused on one thing: helping you reach people for Christ using the tools you already have. From social media and storytelling to branding and online engagement, you'll learn strategies that are clear, doable, and rooted in purpose. No matter where your ministry is right now, you'll leave with a real plan — and the confidence to use it. Register today at news.uccsda.org/adet826.

Free Online Conference: Sabbath School Alive — August 28-29: Children's, Youth, Young Adult, and Adult Sabbath School leaders are invited to register for the FREE Sabbath School Alive Conference, a virtual training event on August 28-29. This conference will provide practical ideas, innovative teaching techniques, and valuable resources to help create engaging, spiritually impactful Sabbath School experiences. All registered participants will receive access to session recordings after the event. Sign up today at nadsabbathschool.org.

Preparedness as Ministry: Actionable Insights for Church Protection: For many churches, safety planning still leans heavily on assumptions: that incidents are unlikely, that someone else will respond, or that general awareness is enough. However, preparedness is not instinctive — it is trained. Learn ways your church can prepare at news.uccsda.org/armprepared726.

SDAbnb is an SDA nonprofit ministry. Adventist hosts from around the world share their hospitality by offering rooms, rides, Sabbath meals, and more to other Adventists that are passing through their area. Most of the time, these members offer this for free in the name of being hospitable! It's free for SDA members to signup, and free to put a listing up. We are encouraging everyone to put some type of listing up, whether a spare room, or offering Sabbath meals, or anything they are able to do. Also, when your members travel, they will be able to connect and stay with fellow Adventists who are hospitable. SDAbnb.org