

Pastor's Corner – "What Do You Believe About Marriage and the Family?"

"Now this is eternal life: that they know You, the only true God,..." (John 17:3, NIV)

The Creator of the Earth is also the Creator of the family. From the beginning, He established the components of a family—a man and a woman—and the conditions for a happy family: separation from parents, commitment, and love.

God's plan for the family is for two to unite in the covenant of marriage and to remain together, living in love, harmony, and dedication "until death do us part." God's plan is for the family to reflect the principles of Heavenly relationships, as exemplified in the relationship between the persons of the God-head. The Bible also teaches that children must be educated in a spirit of love, obedience, and discipline (not physical or emotional abuse). Children should be viewed as gifts from God, entrusted to parents to raise, educate, and form characters for the kingdom of Heaven. Regardless of the distorted family models of the 21st century, Christians must remain faithful to the standards God set at Creation.

"Lord, help me to have Jesus as the model and marital counselor for my family."

4 generation fade

1)parents don't make church a high priority for their kids

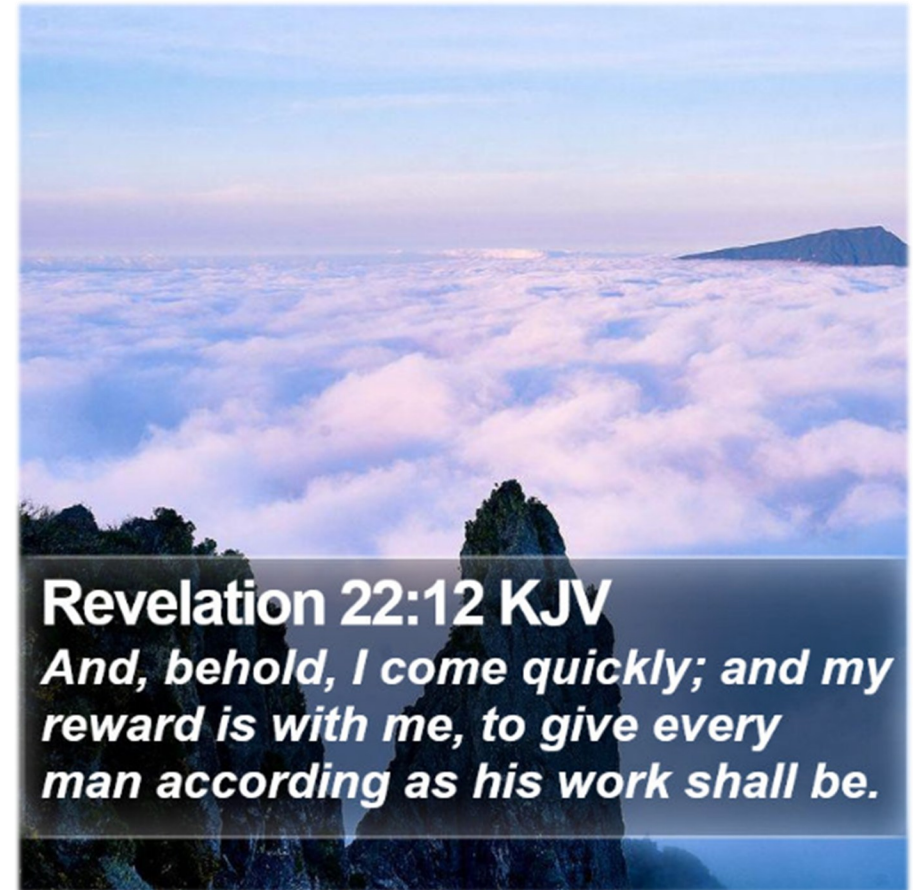

2)kids grow up & make it less of a priority for their kids

3)those kids grow up & make it no priority for their kids

4)those kids grow up w/ no concept of God
