

Computer and Internet Acceptable Use Policy

Lake Region Conference of SDA Adventist Education

The schools of the Seventh-day Adventist education system are pleased to offer their students access to a computer network and the internet. To gain access to the internet, the legal parent and student sign and return this form to school.

The internet is a powerful resource for expanding the educational experience of each student. Access to the internet will enable students to explore thousands of libraries, databases, and personal information sites while exchanging messages with internet users throughout the world.

Unfortunately, it is true that some materials accessible via the internet may contain items that are illegal, defamatory, inaccurate, or offensive. We believe, however, that the benefits to students in the form of information resources and opportunities for collaboration exceed any disadvantages and, therefore, support the school's choosing to make the internet available to our students.

School computers are for educational purposes only. Since the network is provided for students to conduct research and communicate with others, access is given to students who agree to act in a considerate and responsible manner. Parental permission is required. Access is a privilege, not a right. Access entails responsibility. School staff may review files and communications to maintain system integrity and ensure that users are using the system responsibly.

Students will adhere to Christian principles and will:

- Be responsible and courteous in all communications
- Be responsible with all computer hardware
- Keep their passwords to themselves
- Respect the confidentiality of folders, work and files of others
- Learn about and observe copyright laws
- Comply with the Conference Computer and Internet Acceptable Use Policy
- Not attempt to access or alter unauthorized areas of a computer system

Any activity not in compliance with these rules may result in a loss of access as well as other disciplinary or legal action.

Additional regulations may be applied at the local level.

I understand that the internet can provide students with valuable learning experiences.

I understand that the school provides a filtering system on computers connected to the internet and that every reasonable effort will be made to provide supervision. I also understand that the school cannot completely control what is accessed and that a very small part of that information can be illegal, dangerous or offensive.

I accept that, while teachers will always exercise their duty of care, protection against exposure to harmful information must depend finally upon responsible use by students.

- I _____ (Name of Student) understands this responsibility, and I hereby give my permission for him/her to access the internet under the school rules. I understand that students breaking these rules will be subject to appropriate action by the school. Any activity not in compliance with these rules may result in a loss of access as well as other disciplinary or legal action.
- I decline having my child use the internet.
