"Of Christ's relation to His people, there is a beautiful illustration in the laws given to Israel. When through poverty a Hebrew had been forced to part with his patrimony, and to sell himself as a bondservant, the duty of redeeming him and his inheritance fell to the one who was nearest of kin. (Lev. 25:25, 47-49; Ruth 2:20) So the work of redeeming us and our inheritance, lost through sin, fell on Him who is 'near of kin' to us. It was to redeem us that He became our kinsman. Closer than father, mother, brother, friend, or lover is the Lord our Saviour. 'Fear not,' He says, 'for I have redeemed you, I have called you by your name; you are Mine.' 'Since you were precious in My sight, you have been honorable, and I have loved you: therefore I will give men for you, and people for your life.' Isaiah 43: 1, 4 The Desire of Ages, p.327
