

Introducing Speaker,
Tracy Morgan

Tracy Morgan's journey with God has been anything but ordinary. Raised in a Buddhist home, she encountered Jesus in her early 20s and discovered a Savior who specializes in rewriting lives with grace and purpose. That moment marked the beginning of a new chapter, one filled with unexpected joy, peace, and a deeper understanding of God's redeeming love.

For the past decade, Tracy has served in Adventist education, most recently as Development Director at Highland View Academy. She is passionate about helping others recognize the ways God is continually at work in their lives. Tracy is also the author of two Biblical narratives, Bathsheba and Samson (printed by Pacific Press Publishing), has written articles for a variety of Christian publications, and has spoken to women's groups around the region.

In her free time, Tracy enjoys four-wheeling, reading, and exploring the outdoors with her husband, Tim.. They have two adult sons, Timothy and Tyler, a wonderful daughter-in-law, Elise, and an adored grandson (due in June 2026). Tracy is excited to spend the weekend with you, reflecting on the God who redeems our past, renews our present, and continues writing our story.
