CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

"No flesh should glory in His presence. But of Him you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God—and righteousness and sanctification and redemption—that, as it is written, 'He who glories, let him glory in the Lord'." 1 Corinthians 1:29-31. Let all people worship before the Savior of this world.

If you are visiting here today, we extend a warm welcome to you. You are invited to the fellowship dinner following the service.

"Discovering God's Word Together" Come for a Women's Bible Study, Tuesday mornings at 10 AM in the Fellowship Hall to study the book of John.

On Wednesday nights at 7 PM in our community Bible Study Wednesday evening (7 PM), we are studying the book of Romans. Our purpose is to understand more clearly/experientially righteousness by faith and readiness for Christ's Coming. Come and join us and bring a friend.

For Contemplation: "What a man is has greater influence than what he says. The quiet, consistent, godly life is a living epistle, known and read of all men. Holiness is not shaped from without or put on; it radiates from within. If goodness, purity, meekness, lowliness, and integrity dwell in the heart, they will shine forth in the character; and such a character is full of power. Not the instrument, but the great Worker in whose hand the instrument is used, receives the glory. The heart filled with the Saviour's love, daily receives grace to impart. The life reveals the redeeming power of the truth.

The witness borne concerning Jesus was, 'Never man spake like this man' (John 7:46). The reason that Christ spoke as no other man spoke was that He lived as no other man lived. If He had not lived as He did, He could not have spoken as He did. His words bore with them convincing power, because they came from a heart pure and holy, burdened with love and sympathy, beneficence and truth." In Heavenly Places, p. 237
