Our Appointed Work

September 28, 2025 9am - 12pm
424 N Progress Ave Harrisburg PA 17109

Speaker:
Ramona Perez Greek PH.D

Ramona Perez Greek Ph.D. was former NAD Women's Ministries Assistant Director. She also served in a lecture-speaking capacity sharing Jesus across the North American Division. She has travelled internationally with Invitations as speaker on various occasions. She has contributed significantly to shaping the role of the Adventist woman in the SDA church and community.

Ramona holds an earned doctorate in Nursing with an emphasis in Mental Health. She also has been bestowed with an Honorary Doctorate degree from Andrews University in August 1993 for her work in the church-at-large. Ramona has received multiple awards and plaques for her contributions to the church, and has received letters of appreciation and commendation from Conference Presidents, Union and NAD leadership, for her work with the church.

She believes the mission of the church is to be inclusive of all people who love and obey God's commands spreading His Word globally so that Jesus may come back for us soon when we may honor and praise His Holy Name! Her desire is to follow in the footsteps of Jesus to hasten His return for His people. Presently, Ramona is retired and continues to work for the Lord as a member of the church.
