God's Promise of the Week: Romans 4:20 & 21 He did not waver at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God, and being fully convinced that what He had promised He was also able to perform.

Please Note: The sanctuary is a special place set aside for worship, prayer and quiet reflection. Many people come before and after services to prepare their hearts, pray, or spend a few moments in silence. When conversations become loud, it can make it difficult for others to experience the peace and reverence they are seeking. We kindly ask that we all be mindful of our volume while inside the sanctuary. If you would like to visit with friends and family, the fellowship hall, church lobby, or other gathering areas provide a wonderful space for conversation without disturbing those who are praying or meditating. Thank you for helping preserve the sacred atmosphere of our sanctuary. Your thoughtfulness and consideration for others are greatly appreciated. Together, we can ensure that everyone who enters the sanctuary finds it to be a place of peace, worship, and the presence of God.

Daily Bible Readings: Theme: FINDING THE WILL OF GOD

Sabbath: James 1:5

Monday: Proverbs 16:3

Wednesday: Isaiah 48:17

Friday: John 16:13

Sunday: Psalm 32:8

Tuesday: Proverbs 3:5, 6

Thursday: Isaiah 58:11

Health Nugget: It is a sacred duty for those who cook to learn how to prepare healthful food. Many souls are lost as the result of poor cookery. It takes thought and care to make good bread, but there is more religion in a loaf of good bread than many think. There are few really good cooks...cooking is no mean science, and it is one of the most essential in practical life. It is a science that both men and women might well learn. The Ministry of Healing, pg. 293.1
