

Digging Deep: Prophecies of Hope in Daniel and Revelation

#19. 1000 Years and the Reign of Christ

1. Who is being described in Revelation 19:11-16?

a) _____ as the coming _____.

2. a) What group's experience at the second coming is the focus of the passage: the experience of the righteous or the wicked? b) What happens to the wicked?

a) Revelation 19:17-21 The _____

b) Revelation 19:21 They _____ at the second coming.

3. a) What did the angel coming down from heaven have? b) Who gets bound and for how long?

c) Where does he get cast, and what is he not allowed to do?

a) Revelation 20:1 The key to the _____ pit and a great _____ in his hand.

b) Revelation 20:2 _____ for a _____ years.

c) Revelation 20:3 He gets cast into the _____ pit and is not allowed to _____ the nations until the _____ years are finished. After these things he gets _____ for a little while.

4. a) What do the righteous get to do in heaven during the 1000 years? b) When do the wicked get resurrected? c) How much power does the second death have on those that participated in the first resurrection?

a) Revelation 20:4 _____; They get to live and _____ with Christ for 1000 years.

b) Revelation 20:5 After the _____ years.

c) Revelation 20:6 _____ power.

5. a) What does the Greek word for "bottomless pit" mean? b) Where is this Greek word seen first in the Septuagint? c) What is it referring to there? d) What is the "bottomless pit" or "abyss" in Revelation 20:1,3?

a) _____.

b) _____

c) The _____ of an uncreated _____.

d) The _____ of an _____ destroyed by sin.

6. a) How is Satan chained? b) Why can't he deceive anyone? c) What is Satan doing then?

a) Revelation 12:9; 20:3 He is chained by _____.

b) Revelation 20:3 All the righteous are in _____, and all the wicked are _____, so he has nobody to _____.

c) He is _____ the fruits of his _____ for a thousand years.

7. a) Who has all judgment been committed to? b) What is the judgment committed to the saints during the 1000 years? c) Why would God have us do this? d) What will not arise ever again?

a) John 5:22; Revelation 22:12 All judgment has been _____ to the Son, Jesus. His _____ is with Him.

b) 1 Corinthians 6:2-3; Revelation 20:6 The judgment of the _____ and _____. The righteous shall be _____ of God and reign with Him.

c) 1 John 4:8 God is _____. He wants us to be fully convinced that every judgment was perfectly _____. Then the universe will serve Him from the motive of _____ alone.

d) Nahum 1:9 _____. In other words, there will never be another _____ again. No more _____, forever!

8. a) What happens at the end of the 1000 years? b) How has he been released?
- a) Revelation 20:7-8 Satan will be _____ and will _____ the nations once again.
 b) Revelation 20:5 The wicked have been _____ and he now has someone to deceive.
9. a) Why would God resurrect the wicked? b) What is demonstrated by the wicked? c) What does God then do and why? d) Where is the Devil cast?
- a) 1 John 4:8 God is _____.
 b) Revelation 20:9 They _____ the beloved city to take it demonstrating that their wicked _____ will never change.
 c) Revelation 20:9 Fire comes down from heaven and _____ them. There is no _____ by any created being in the universe. Angels and humanity alike know that God is _____. He destroys the wicked, forever ending _____ in the universe.
 d) Revelation 20:10-15 They are cast into the lake of _____, which is the second _____.

Reflection:

1. I understand that Jesus is coming as King of Kings and Lord of Lords. _____
2. I understand that the resurrection of the righteous is before the 1000 years. _____
3. I understand that Christ resurrects the wicked after the 1000 years to demonstrate His love and justice.

4. I understand that after the destruction of the wicked, sin will never rise again. _____
5. I want to commit myself to Christ because I want to take part in the blessed first resurrection and live with Jesus forever. _____