Nelson Bahena, pastor, Austin Spanish Oltorf, Austin Spanish East, and Austin Spanish Renacer Seventh-day Adventist Church | Austin, Texas

We read in Galatians 6:10 NKJV, "As we have opportunity, let us do good to all, especially to those who are of the household of faith." These words are more than a verse; they are a calling. A calling that begins right here with us, in the local church.

Never underestimate what God can do through a faithful congregation. A committed church becomes a city on a hill, shining hope into a world that has forgotten what hope looks like. And while our Adventist movement stretches across the globe, the eternal strength of that mission is born in churches like ours, through believers who choose to be faithful right where God placed them.

When we give to our local church, God transforms our gifts into opportunities. He blesses lives and strengthens His mission right here at home. Local giving unites the church, fuels ministry and turns compassion into action.

The local church is where Adventist mission begins. When we give, we ignite a movement shaped by unity, guided by vision and alive with community transformation. This light of such a movement reaches farther than any sermon could ever travel.

Today, in addition to returning your tithe to the Lord, I invite you to give faithfully to your local church budget. Your gift fuels the mission, strengthens our church and blesses our community.

Sermon - Pastor Ryan Pool
"I Thank God for You"

Closing Hymn
Hymn 565 - "For the Beauty of the Earth"
