

The President's Pen!

LYNN BRYSON – We are saddened to share the news of the passing of Elder Lynn Bryson, who fell asleep in Jesus on Wednesday, December 17, 2025. Elder Bryson faithfully served for many years as pastor of the Twin Falls Church, Buhl Church, Eden Valley Church, and the Olive Tree Ministry Center. He was a devoted servant of God with a deep and passionate love for his family, for people, for God's last-day remnant church, for soul winning and evangelism, and for the soon Second Coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. His presence, counsel, and ministry are already greatly missed.

We ask that you please keep his dear wife, Debra, and their entire family in your prayers during this time of loss and sorrow. Please also remember in prayer the members and churches he faithfully served as their pastoral leader.

With hope anchored in Christ's promise, we look forward to that glorious day and echo the words of Scripture: "Even so, come, Lord Jesus." — Revelation 22:20.

Keep looking to Jesus. He is coming soon!
