

The President's Pen!

The Mission

“Make disciples for Christ by sharing the hope of the Three Angels’ Messages.”

The Vision

“To equip and empower member-led, pastor-coached churches that reflect Jesus’ love and passionately live the gospel.”

RETIREMENT ANNOUNCEMENT: EVE RUSK

After 28 years of faithful service to the Idaho Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, Eve Rusk has announced her retirement. Her last day in the office will be Thursday, February 26, 2026.

Eve began her service with the Idaho Conference as an administrative assistant. Sometime later, she was asked to also serve as Assistant Director for Communications and Planned Giving & Trust Services. She eventually accepted the invitation to serve as Director of Communications and Planned Giving & Trust Services, while also faithfully carrying the responsibilities of Conference Clerk.

Throughout her many years of service, Eve’s dedication, professionalism, and deep historical knowledge of the Idaho Conference have been invaluable. Her commitment has left a lasting impact on the conference and the many individuals she has served.

Eve will be greatly missed. We extend our heartfelt gratitude for her years of faithful service and wish her God’s richest blessings as she begins this new chapter of her life.

RETIREMENT ANNOUNCEMENT: PATRICK FREY

After 44 years in Adventist Education, Patrick Frey has announced his retirement, effective June 22, 2026. Fourteen of those years, he dedicated to the Idaho Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

Patrick has faithfully served as Superintendent of Education, and during some of those years he also carried responsibilities as Senior Youth Director. More recently, he accepted additional duties as Director of Possibility Ministries. Throughout his service, Patrick has worked closely and effectively with teachers, school boards, pastors, and churches across the conference.

His dedication, commitment, and faithful support of Adventist education have made a lasting impact. Patrick’s leadership and collaborative spirit will be deeply missed, and we are grateful for the many years he has invested in ministry and education.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude for his years of faithful service and wish him God’s richest blessings as he begins this new chapter of life.

GINA DUNCAN – We are pleased to announce that Gina Duncan has accepted the invitation from the Idaho Conference Board of Directors to serve as the new Planned Giving & Trust Services and Communications Director, as well as Conference Clerk.

Gina holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Business Administration and a Master’s Degree in Business Administration from Montemorelos University. Her professional experience includes serving as Public Relations Director and Marketing Coordinator at Montemorelos University for four years, working for 16 years as an Administrative Assistant and Executive Assistant at the Pacific Press Publishing Association, and most recently serving as Administrative Assistant in the Idaho Conference Office of Education.

Gina brings strong skills in written communication, networking, organization, attention to detail, problem-solving, and Microsoft Office. She is fluent in both Spanish and English.

Gina is married to Andy Duncan, and they have two children (Zach & Andrea) who attend Gem State Adventist Academy.

We warmly welcome Gina to her new role and look forward to continuing to work together to advance the mission and vision of the Idaho Conference.

Fun Facts:

Baptisms and Professions of Faith through January 26, 2026: 6

Conference Membership: 7382

Tithe – December 2025 $1,324,014 ~ YTD $8,461,092 ~ 11.25% increase compared to 2024

Keep looking to Jesus. He is coming soon!

David Prest, Jr., president

Jo-Ann Miller, accountant/administrative assistant

Idaho Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, Inc.

7777 W Fairview Ave.

Boise Idaho 83704

208.375.7524 * Fax 208.375.7526

website Facebook

<https://instagram.com/idahoadventist?igshid=YmMyMTA2M2Y=>