KEY CONCEPTS

Paul expresses in Romans 8:35 his deep assurance of Christ's love for him—and for all of us—through a rhetorical question, “Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?” The expected answer is a resounding “No one!” If God “did not spare His own Son,” why would any hardship be able to separate us from the love of Christ? God poured His love by giving us His only Son, and with Him all things. Paul did not need further evidence of God's love. Neither do we.

From Chris & Carol Kober

“We appreciate our church family's love and thoughtfulness.”

THY WORD IS A LAMP

Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet and a Light unto my path. Psalms 119:105

Are we transformed or conformed to the world? We are being shaped . . . molded by what we watch, listen to, or scroll to see. The world is full of distractions.

Satan customizes his work for each person. Our choice is to make the next move:
Remain where you are or . . .

Move where God will lead you by your side. Scripture provides the lamp.

All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right. 2 Timothy 3:16
