KEY CONCEPTS

Rejoicing in the Lord is the opposite of relying on human strength.

Paul provides precious lessons on how to deal with false teachings. These lessons are crucial for the church today. To a greater or lesser degree, all our churches suffer the attack of false teachers.

Knowing Christ is a progressive experience. As we draw closer to Him, our intimacy with Him will deepen more and more, which must continue to grow until the day we see Him face to face.

Why is the Bible so crucial to Seventh-day Adventists?

Without the Bible we would have a very different understanding of time and history and our role to the last days of this earth.

Without the Bible the anticipation of Jesus' soon return would be absent, along with the inspiring hymns from its verses that bring comfort, hope, and encouragement.

Without the Bible, we would not know the freedom that comes through the forgiveness of our sins and the assurance of salvation.

Without the Bible we would not know about the transforming power of the Holy Spirit.
