KEY CONCEPTS

As citizens of heaven, we must live with purpose, holding on to the hope that our Savior will come from heaven and transform our mortal bodies into glorious ones. Until that day comes, we must wait for Him, (Phil. 3:20) and stand fast in Him (Phil. 4:1) assured that our heavenly status is far better than our earthly status.

A joyful and contented life is possible, even in this tumultuous world, but it requires obedience to biblical principles.

SABBATH BLESSINGS

Jesus said “. .. just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another.”
John 13:34

Why is the Bible so crucial to Seventh-day Adventists?

Without the Bible we would not regard our bodies as temples of the Holy Spirit and would not have the convictions about the blessings of healthful living.

Without the Bible we could not uphold God's will in marriage and would quickly conform to the changing views of culture and society.

Without the Bible, the beauty and blessing of the Sabbath as God's Day of holy rest would escape us.

Without the Bible there would be no Church because the Church is always validated by the Bible, never the other way round.

In fact, without the Bible there would be no Seventh-day Adventist Church!
