KEY CONCEPTS

As you read and study the biblical text, apply it to your present life. Read the biblical text as if it is speaking to you personally and directly (which it does). Additionally, ponder how the Word of God may illuminate your various paths in life: your job, your problems, and your relationships with family, friends, and colleagues. Commit yourself to keeping God's commandments, Pray that God will help you to receive and understand His teachings.

ENGAGING

“Everything that Christians do should be as transparent as the sunlight. Truth is of God. Deception whatever form it takes, is of Satan. Still, it is not always simple or easy to speak the exact truth. We cannot speak the truth unless we know the truth, but so often preconceived opinions, personal bias, a lack of information, or errors in judgement prevent us from actually understanding the situation accurately. We cannot speak the truth unless our minds are continually guided by the One who is truth.

“Through the words of Paul, Jesus says, ‘When you talk, do not say harmful things, but say what people need—words that will help others become stronger. Then what you say will do good to those who listen to you’”
