KEY CONCEPTS

Prayer is a universal human need.

Psalms 62:8 says, “Trust in Him at all times, you people, pour out your heart before Him, God is a refuge for us.”

TRUST. Do we trust that He really does know what’s best , even when we don’t see an immediate answer to our prayers? Do we trust that eventually He will answer in His perfect time and way?

Have faith when you pray.

Hebrews 11:6 James 1:6

“By their fruits ye shall know them” The inward adorning of a meek and quiet spirit is priceless. In the life of the true Christian the outward adorning is always in harmony with the inward peace and holiness. . . God’s people are to show a faith steadfast and immovable. The Bible is their standard. Rich currents of grace from heaven will produce light in them, which they are to impart to others. . . If you are permeated with His love, and filled with His fullness, children, youth, and young disciples will look to you for their impressions of what constitutes practical godliness; and you may thus be the means of leading them in the paths of obedience to God.
