KEY CONCEPTS

Peter (1Peter 3:8)
shares the most challenging aspect of our preparation for sharing the gospel.
He invites all the members of the church to work on how we relate to one another.
We must be “of one mind” – in harmony with one another Believers should also “be sensitive to one another’s needs and concerns “love one another” as part of the family of God with our connection with Christ “compassionate” to be merciful and willing to forgive one another as God forgives us.
“be humble” esteem others better than me.

SABBATH BLESSINGS

Begin each day with optimism and end each day with forgiveness Happiness is life begins and ends
within your heart.

REFLECTORS OF GOD

God uses us to influence members of our family positively. See 1 John 4:7-11.

For our children – it is what you leave in them, not what you leave to them.

Something to think about:

Own your own happiness – be responsible

Challenge your own story – see perspective –
change the story

Enjoy the journey – joy in the process all along the way

Make relationships count – God in charge –
of self, spouse, kids

Balance your work and your play.
