KEY CONCEPTS

The cross is God's surprising, and all-encompassing, answer to the sin problem. It is the foundation of the gospel message preached by Paul and the other apostles to a world that had a radically different worldview.

The cross becomes either a stumbling block or folly to those who hear about it without embracing the one who hung there. Jesus died on the cross in order to offer the world forgiveness, transformation, grace, and a way home to God who invests all to save His fallen creation.

love,
May our love overcome our pride.
