KEY CONCEPTS

Paul is dealing with false teachers in 2 Corinthians 10-12, who spoke with charisma and authority. But they were preaching a distortion of the gospel, leading people away from the truth of God's Word.

While some may consider Paul humble in person, his letters reflect the seriousness of his mission, and he is prepared to act decisively when needed. These false teachers use manipulation and deceit to subvert the true message of Christ, and Paul recognizes that such falsehoods create spiritual strongholds in the minds of believers.

SABBATH BLESSINGS

It feels good to know that another person is praying for you. Think about what it means for Jesus to be praying for you! Just thanking Him for His eternal vigilance on your behalf will bring living water to whatever spiritual desert you happen to be going through.

How can you be God's "live wire" when spiritually you feel like such a "dud?"

Realize that Jesus is your intercessor. Then, ask a trusted friend, a spiritual mentor, spouse, family member to be your prayer partner. Can we get along in this life without prayer support?

IF MY PEOPLE PRAY

"You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart." Jeremiah 29:13

"UNTIL OUR PASSION FOR FINDING GOD IS DEEPER THAN ANY OTHER PASSION, WE WILL ARRANGE LIFE ACCORDING TO OUR TASTE, NOT GOD'S." Dr. Larry Crabb

Real prayer happens when our desire to submit to God's power outweighs our desire to harness it
