KEY CONCEPTS

God gave the prophet a divine revelation, and the Spirit empowered the prophet to deliver that revelation. Also, the prophet functioned as it shepherd over the Israelite people, nurturing, guiding, rebuking, and correcting them. Finally, signs such as miracles, special events, and object lessons verified the prophet's divine credentials.

The prophetic call was a life-transforming moment for the prophet.

SABBATH BLESSINGS

DO YOU KNOW?

The most effective way to convey the taste of honey is to let someone taste it.

The most powerful way to convey the love of Jesus is to let people experience it through acts of charity and benevolence.

Every Christian has the responsibility to spread the Gospel of Christ through a life modeled on His and reflecting His character—a life characterized by active love, compassion, charity, sharing, mutual aid, and humility. This is “lived” evangelism.

God's work will be sustained by generous voluntary offerings, free from coercion or threats of a curse.
