BAPTISM demonstrates our connection not only with Christ, but also with our spiritual brothers and sisters—past, present, and future. We're joining everyone who has walked before us in faith, saying that we are members of one body, redeemed and brought to life by the same Lord.

The Mission of the Seventh-day Adventist Church is to proclaim to all people the everlasting gospel in the context of the three angels' messages of Revelation 14:6-12, leading them to accept Jesus as their personal Savior and to unite with His church, and to nurture them in preparation for His soon return.

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE READING

KING JAMES VERSION

⁴According as He hath chosen us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love: ⁵Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will,

NEW LIVING TRANSLATION

⁴Even before He made the world, God loved us and chose us in Christ to be holy and without fault in His eyes. ⁵God decided in advance to adopt us into His own family by bringing us to Himself through Jesus Christ. This is what He wanted to do, and it gave Him great pleasure.

Regardless of whether the broader economy is struggling or thriving, Christians should seek to give generously of our time, talents, and resources to those in greater need. Reach out to your local church to see where help is needed.

"Don't neglect to do what is good and to share, for God is pleased with such sacrifices."
 ~ Hebrews 13:16 (CSB)
