SERMON NOTES

Whether you're critical of your government or think it's unfairly criticized, the command for Christians is to love neighbors and enemies alike. That requires speaking about others with dignity and respect, even when we feel like they haven't earned it.

"With the tongue we bless our Lord and Father, and with it we curse people who are made in God's likeness. Blessing and cursing come out of the same mouth. My brothers and sisters, these things should not be this way... Who among you is wise and understanding? By his good conduct he should show that his works are done in the gentleness that comes from wisdom."

James 3:9-10, 13 (CSB)
