

Sabbath School

Theme: Putting the Go in the Gospel... Use Me Lord

|                                              |                                                      |
|----------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| Opening Remarks:                             | Sis. Gloria Henry                                    |
| Opening Song:                                | Hymn #361 - Hark! Tis The Shepherd'sVoice I Hear |
| Scripture Reading:                           | Sis. Beverly Williams - Matthew 28:19,20             |
| Opening Prayer:                              | Sis. Blossom Brown                                   |
| Mission Spotlight:                           | DVD                                                  |
| Care Time &amp; Lesson Review: | In Class                               |
| Welcome:                                     | Sis. Lillyhue Plummer- Pryce                         |
| Closing Remarks:                             | Sis. Gloria Henry                                    |
| Song of Reflection:                          | Hymn # 359 - Hark! The Voice of Jesus Calling        |
| Personal Ministries:                         | Sis Urma Tomby                                       |
| Closing Prayer:                              | Sis. Urma Tomby                                      |

Divine Service

|                                    |                                                                                   |
|------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Announcements/Welcome:             | Sis. Dawn McLeggon                                                                |
| Special Feature                    | Awards Presentation - Sis. Urma Tomby                                             |
| Call to Worship:                   | Pastor Rowan Sewell                                                               |
| Introit:                           | Accacia Smith                                                                     |
| Opening Song:                      | Hymn # 185 - Jesus is All the World to Me                                         |
| Intercessory Prayer:               | Sis. Urma Tomby                                                                   |
| Special Music:                     | Bro. Paul Gittens                                                                 |
| Offertory:                         | Elder Lorna Cowan                                                                 |
| Scripture Reading:                 | Sis. Destiny Nevins - 1 Corinthians 3:5-10                                        |
| Introduction of Speaker:           | Pastor Rowan Sewell                                                               |
| Song of Meditation:                | Bro. Paul Gittens                                                                 |
| Message of the Hour: | Elder Errol Cowan- Planting, Watering and Reaping |
| Closing Song:                      | Hymn # 287 - Softly and Tenderly                                                  |
| Benediction:                       | Pastor Rowan Sewell                                                               |
| Outro/Response:                    | Precious Sabbath Day - Accacia Smith                                              |

3:30 PM

Bible Study