

SHIFT

Message 3 — "Speak, Lord!" — September 19th, 2026
Fill in the blanks as you follow along.

1 Samuel 3:1

"In those days the word of the LORD was _____; there were not many visions."

1 Samuel 3:4-5

"Then the LORD called Samuel. Samuel answered, '_____
_____.'"

1 Samuel 3:7

Samuel did not yet _____ the LORD.

Today's Theme

"_____, LORD, for your servant is _____."

1 Samuel 3:9-10

Esther 4:14

"Who knows but that you have come to your royal position for _____
_____?"

Vocation

"Vocation" comes from the Latin _____ — to call.

Luther: "God milks the cows through the _____ of the milkmaid."

Liturgy of the Ordinary, p. 23

"There is no task too small or too _____ to reflect God's glory and worth."

1 Samuel 3:19–20

Samuel let none of his words fall to the _____.

All Israel from _____ to _____ recognized him as a prophet.

Liturgy of the Ordinary, p. 24

"How I spend this _____ day in Christ is how I will spend my Christian life."

This Week's Homework

1. Say the prayer before you need it — each morning, out loud.

2. Name your palace — the ordinary place you've kept faith private.

3. Stop hiding for one conversation this week.

4. Treat Monday like it counts — one ordinary task, done as worship.

"Speak, Lord. Your servant is listening."