Luke 10:1

"...the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them _____ by _____ ahead of him to every town and place where he was about to go."

Jesus goal!

Multiply the _____.

"Calling the twelve about Him, Jesus bade them go out two and two through the towns and villages. None were sent forth alone, but brother was associated with brother, friend with friend. Thus they could help and encourage each other, counseling and praying together, each one's strength supplementing the other's weakness. In the same manner He afterward sent forth the seventy. It was the Saviour's purpose that the messengers of the gospel should be associated in this way. In our own time evangelistic work would be far more successful if this example were more closely followed." Ellen G. White, The Desire of Ages, p.350

Partnership for the Gospel

Who's your _____?

"It is the privilege of every Christian not only to look for but to hasten the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ (2 Peter 3:12, margin). Were all who profess His name bearing fruit to His glory, how quickly the whole world would be sown with the seed of the gospel. Quickly the last great harvest would be ripened, and Christ would come to gather the precious grain." Ellen G. White, Christ Object Lessons, p.69

Memory Verse — Luke 10:2

"The harvest is plentiful, but the _____ are few."

This Week's Homework

1. Name your two — one specific person you could invite into something you're doing alone.

2. Give away something real — one task, fully, not just the easy part.

3. Check where your joy is anchored — on what worked, or on what's permanently true.

The keys are already in your hand. Time to shift our gears!
