Survey: On Tuesday evening, June 23, two representatives from the Carolina Conference Ministerial Department met with church members to discuss issues relating to the current pastoral vacancy. Voices were raised in thanks for Pastor Marco Quarteroli and his investment in people-centered ministry, particularly with young adults, and questions were raised about the conference's process of finding a new pastor. During this interim, the elders and ministry leaders will make sure the essential work of the church goes forward. July will be a busy month with VBS and preparations for a new school year.

To better understand congregational expectations for pastors, the conference has prepared a church member survey that can be accessed through a QR code. Just aim your mobile phone camera to the code to access the link. The anonymous survey asks questions about what you are looking for in a pastor, gives you a chance to rate our church, and even provides a place for suggesting names of pastors. It all takes about ten minutes. Here is the code:

Assistance Needed in the Children's Department: We are seeking a dedicated leader to serve regularly in the Primary Department and develop meaningful relationships with our children. However, if your schedule does not permit weekly involvement, we also welcome individuals who can volunteer biweekly or once a month. If you are willing, please contact Alicen Thomas at 608-347-5219 via call or text.

Sterling Volunteers: As followers of Christ in Seventh-day Adventist organizations in the North American Division, we believe it is our responsibility to nurture and protect the vulnerable within our communities, including our children and youth. Anyone who works with children AND/OR anyone who holds a position given to them by the nominating committee or the church/school board needs to register for the "Sterling Volunteer Training" module. Please register at <https://www.nadadventist.org/asv/> within the next 30 days. If you have already registered and/or are renewing your registration (every 3 years) we thank you for your attention to this process. If you have questions please contact Gerard McLane, our Sterling Volunteer Coordinator, at 828-767-3797 OR gerard.mclane@pisgah.us.
