

THIS MORNING'S MESSAGE

The United States in Bible
Prophecy

In a quest for a new world and new resources, a nation was built that would change the world.

A background image of the Statue of Liberty in space. The statue is green and stands against a dark, starry sky. A bright blue and white light streak, resembling a comet or a satellite trail, curves across the top left and bottom right corners. The overall scene is a composite of the iconic symbol of freedom and the vastness of space.

Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses, yearning to breathe free, the wretched refuse of your teeming shore. Send these the homeless, tempest-tossed to me. I lift up my lamp beside the golden door.

 - GREECE
 - ROME
 - DIVIDED EUROPE
 - THE U.S. – *religious liberty,
world superpower

“Americans should admit the truth and face up to their responsibilities as the undisputed masters of the world. The fact is no country has been as dominant culturally, economically, technologically, and militarily in the history of the world since the Roman Empire.”

—Sydney Morning Herald, September 2002

The background of the image is a composite of two space-themed scenes. The upper portion shows the dark, star-filled void of space with a thin, glowing blue arc representing the Earth's atmosphere or horizon. The lower portion features a bright, glowing sun or star in the bottom right corner, casting a warm, golden light across the scene. The word "REVIEW" is centered in the middle of the image, overlapping both scenes.
