You have heard the old adage, "How do you eat an elephant?" Of course the answer is one bite at a time. By God's grace, we invite you to yoke up with Him and begin your walk today toward the goal! What did one MACS School Board member do? She prayerfully made a list of potential donors to approach. When she finished her list of potential partners, she had over 50 names! She made contact with them all. The calls and texts started coming in with pledges of support. Praise God, it was that simple. She said she dropped all the objections, and prayed for guidance. The rest was in God's hands.

She shared her process with a friendly competitor, and she was astonished at the results. She reported reconnecting with friends from the past, catching up while pledging to help her reach her goal. Yes, it's that easy! Thank you for showing your support for Christian Education by joining us and helping us to meet MACS' $25,000 fundraising goal. Please call 618-365-6440 to inquire about online registration and payment options. MACS: Educating for Today, and for Eternity!
