(Revelation 10)

“

Then the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again and said, “Go, take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the earth.”

REVELATION 10:8

“So I went to the angel and said to him, “Give me the little book.” And he said to me, “Take and eat it; and it will make your stomach bitter, but it will be as sweet as honey in your mouth.”

REVELATION 10:9

“

Then I took the little book out of the angel’s hand and ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. But when I had eaten it, my stomach became bitter.

“

And beginning at Moses and all the Prophets, He expounded to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself.

LUKE 24:27

"Our fondest hopes and expectations were blasted, and such a spirit of weeping came over us as I never experienced before. It seemed that the loss of all earthly friends could have been no comparison. We wept, and wept, till the day dawn."

Edson, Hiram. manuscript fragment on his "Life and Experience," n.d. Ellen G. White Research Center, James White Library, Andrews University, Berrien Springs, Mich. pp. 4–5.

"We started, and while passing through a large field I was stopped about midway of the field. Heaven seemed opened to my view, and I saw distinctly and clearly that …our High Priest … entered on that day the second apartment of that sanctuary; and that He had a work to perform in the Most Holy Place before coming to the earth."

F. D. Nichol. The Midnight Cry. p. 458.

“

And he said to me, “You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, tongues, and kings.”

REVELATION 10:11

“

The nations were angry, and Your wrath has come, And the time of the dead, that they should be judged…

REVELATION 11:18

The Heavenly Sanctuary

John 14:1-2

Beautiful things can happen as the result of disappointment.

Cast your burden on the LORD, And He shall sustain you; He shall never permit the righteous to be moved.
