“The Love of God”

卐 Closing Remarks 卐

In contrast, 2 Corinthians 13:11-14 closes with gentle exhortations towards joy, unity, and peace, culminating in a powerful blessing from the triune Godhead; “The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy spirit be with you all” (2 Corinthians 13:14, ESV), These endings showcase Paul’s unique blend of doctrine and personal connection, turning the final words of his letters into lasting spiritual encouragements, focusing on grace, love, and fellowship.

卐 Questions to Ponder卐

In 2 Corinthians 13:11, Paul says, “Aim for restoration” (ESV), Why do you think Paul includes this goal as a final exhortation? What might restoration look like in your own relationships or church community?

A Program of Prison Fellowship

Pleasant Street Seventh Day Adventist Church

Prison Ministry Department

Invites you to Participate in the

Angel Tree Program
Unwrap the Joy

When Mom, Dad or Family Member goes to prison, a child may feel lonely and forgotten. Especially around the holidays. Share the hope of Jesus with a hurting child in your community as you deliver a Holiday gift and a personal message of love on behalf of their parent or family member in prison.

It starts with a gift and leads to restored lives.
