Ellen G. White wrote about the 1st disappointment in Chapter 16, ¶ 1.

When the year 1843 was entirely passed away unmarked by the Advent of Jesus, those who had looked in faith for his appearing were for a time left in doubt and perplexity.

The 2nd disappointment, Appendix note 4.

The year 1843, during which Adventists at first expected the coming of Christ, was regarded as extending to the spring of 1844. The reason for this, briefly stated, is as follows: Anciently the year did not commence in mid-winter, as now, but at the new moon after the vernal equinox.
