WHYBECHURCH? “Church is not a place or a program. Church is not a checklist or a chore. Church is you. Church is me. Church is all of us living kingdom values and answering God’s call wherever we are.” We study His life and go out into the community to practice what it means to be the church. We love you and hope you join in! 1John 2:5-6

OPPORTUNITIES TO LISTEN

Reading God’s Word
The Bible is truly God’s Word. Spending time reading His words helps us get to know Him. Making sure we have this time every day is so important. We should place it on our calendar and keep it as we would any other appointment. Taking the time to read about those whom Scripture speaks of, specifically those who listened to God’s call on their life, gives the Holy Spirit quiet time to speak to us and guide us in our life. Take notes of the things you learn each day as you read. In Psalm 32:8, God says, “I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you with my eye upon you” (ESV). In Fundamentals of Christian Education, Ellen White wrote, “Through study of the Scriptures, through earnest prayer, they [every soul] may hear His message to them, ‘Be still and know that I am God.’ ” She also wrote, “The Bible is God’s voice speaking to us, just as surely as though we could hear it with our ears.”

Praise and Thanksgiving
During this quiet time with God, be sure to begin with a time of praise to God! You can do this through the reading of a psalm, through music, or through keeping a journal of praises and gratitude to Him for His blessings and watch care over us. Write down ways that you see God leading you every day.

Prayer Time
Praying is reaching toward God, choosing to connect. We should make it a specific prayer that God will speak to us and assist us in hearing His voice. Second, we should ask others to pray that we will hear God’s voice and call on our life. This could include godly friends, mentors, and pastors. Ask them to commit to pray specifically that you will hear God’s voice. “Another way in which God’s voice is heard is through the appeals of His Holy Spirit, making impressions upon the heart.”

Sabbath Rest
God gave us 24 hours each week to live at a different pace and with a different focus. Protect the Sabbath hours as a break from your everyday stresses and everyday burdens and enjoy the quieter and gentler pace of the Sabbath. Use these hours to spend more time on the opportunities we have discussed that facilitate listening to God: reading about Him, praising Him, praying, reflecting, talking to others about Him, and spending time in nature.

Spending Time in Nature
Another beautiful way to create opportunities to hear God’s voice is by spending time in nature, around trees, plants, flowers, and water—all the things that were created by God. “Next to the Bible, nature is to be our great lesson book.” Nature provides the perfect environment to hear Him. “When every other voice is hushed, and in quietness we wait before Him, the silence of the soul makes more distinct the voice of God.”

Reflecting
Often, we do not reflect on the past. Either we have too much pain there and we want to leave it behind, or we are simply too busy to take the time. But reflecting on our lives can help us see that God has been leading us to where we are today. We may have made bad decisions, but God continues to lead us as we let Him.

IMPEDIMENTS TO LISTENING

Busyness

Many societies in the world revere busyness. People who are very busy are somehow viewed as more important than the rest. Their calendars are full every day with work, with church activities, with social appointments, and with other engagements. But sometimes, having so much on our calendars, so much activity in our lives, means that we are too busy for quiet and relaxed time with God. Where would we fit Him in? Even if overly busy people fit in a quick quiet time, it is not relaxed and unrushed.

Noise

Many people always have noise in their days, almost every minute. The early mornings are filled with the noise of family readying themselves for school and work, the sounds of the children, a spouse, entertainment, or phone calls. Then, at work, there is too much going on for us to even have a quiet thought. Then when we do have some free time, we fill it with social media “noise” or TV “noise” or even quality “noise.” But so much noise cannot allow the peace and quiet necessary to hear God’s gentle voice.

Tiredness

Sometimes we are doing so much that we are always tired. When we finally sit down at the end of the day, we fall asleep almost immediately. Or we are so tired all the time that we can barely focus and certainly are not alert and waiting to hear His voice.

Very Connected at Church (but not with Him)

Sometimes we think that if we are at church or doing a church-related activity, that is enough connection with Him. But we can be so busy with church or Pathfinders or praise team or teaching Sabbath School that we do not have time for our personal relationship with Jesus.

No Connection

But the biggest reason that we do not hear God’s voice is that we do not have an open connection to Him. Either through lack of time spent with Him, reading His Word; lack of time spent in quiet before Him; or through cherished disobedience that takes more of our time than time with Him, we are not connected to “the Vine.”
