WHYBECHURCH? "Church is not a place or a program. Church is not a checklist or a chore. Church is you. Church is me. Church is all of us living kingdom values and answering God's call wherever we are." We study His life and go out into the community to practice what it means to be the church. We love you and hope you join in! 1John 2:5-6

As we continue looking at the topic of salvation, I want to highlight that God does not want us to live in fear. John writes, "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear" (1 John 4:18). As long as we abide in Christ, we have nothing to fear. But when we take our hand out of His hand and we choose to turn from His will and go our own way, then we lose this assurance. But as long as we are placing our lives in the hands of the Almighty, we don't have to live in fear and doubt. God doesn't want us to have that kind of experience.

I believe that it's important for us to daily rededicate our lives to the Lord. That doesn't mean that we're lost every day. Paul said, "I die daily" (1 Corinthians 15:31). What he means by that is, "I choose every day to die to self and be born again unto God." On a daily basis we rededicate ourselves to God. That doesn't mean you're lost and saved and lost and saved ... as if you're on a spiritual roller coaster. Jesus taught us to pray, "Give us this day our daily bread" (Matthew 6:11). We live on the basis of daily trusting in the Lord.

Some Christians do advocate the doctrine of eternal security. The Bible teaches that God leaves the door open for us to change our minds at any time. Salvation is not based upon only one irrevocable act or choice of the past, but upon a continuous, personal relationship of the believer with Christ. When the decision to break the love relationship is made by willful disobedience, the believer ceases to be a true believer and forfeits any assurance of salvation.

Key Bible Texts

These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God. (1 John 5:13 KJV)
