WHYBECHURCH? "Church is not a place or a program. Church is not a checklist or a chore. Church is you. Church is me. Church is all of us living kingdom values and answering God's call wherever we are." We study His life and go out into the community to practice what it means to be the church. We love you and hope you join in! 1John 2:5-6

The key to understanding this text lies in the meaning of the word "seed." There is an assurance that this "seed" will provide total victory over sin. Who is this "seed" whose presence in our lives can guarantee the strength to obey? We find the answer in Revelation 12:17: "The dragon was enraged with the woman, and he went to make war with the rest her [seed], who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ."

The seed of the woman was the male child of verse 5, "who was to rule all nations" and "was caught up unto God." Christ is this seed! You find the same teaching in the apostle Paul's writings when he says of Abraham, "And to your Seed, who is Christ" (Galatians 3:16). Now we can better catch the beautiful truth in 1 John 3:9. Those who are truly born of God do not willfully sin, because Christ is enthroned in their hearts. The only way they can choose to sin is by separating from Jesus. In other words, the abiding presence of Christ and the willful commission of sin cannot happen simultaneously in the same heart at the same time. Deliberate sin always separates us from Christ, and the Holy Spirit does not become a minister of sin. On the other hand, those who are genuinely converted and have the indwelling of the Spirit will be able to overcome sin in all its forms.

This text does not mean that Christians are incapable of committing wrong acts; rather, their love for Christ keeps them from walking contrary to His will. The word "sin" here is in a Greek form that indicates a continuing process. In other words, even if they stumble into a sin, they will not continue such a course; rather, they will sincerely repent and turn from any willful violation of God's revealed will.

Key Bible Texts

Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. (1 John 3:9 KJV)
