From the Pen of Inspiration

One cherished sin will, little by little, debase the character, bringing all its nobler powers into subjection to the evil desire. The removal of one safeguard from the conscience, the indulgence of one evil habit, one neglect of the high claims of duty, breaks down the defenses of the soul and opens the way for Satan to come in and lead us astray. The only safe course is to let our prayers go forth daily from a sincere heart, as did David, "Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my foot-steps slip not" Psalm 17:5. (Conflict and Courage, p. 114.)

Bible Studies Through Mail: We're looking for volunteers to help with our Bible School Mail Correspondence ministry! This is a simple, yet impactful way to share the Bible. Your main tasks will involve sending weekly or bi-weekly Bible study lessons to individuals who request them and making occasional follow-up calls to ensure they're receiving the studies and to answer any questions. We'll provide you with all the necessary materials, including study packets, requester information (name, address, phone), envelopes, stamps, and labels. While basic computer skills are a plus, they aren't required. If you're interested in helping with this great ministry or have questions contact Matt Burton 208-416-8138.
