We must bring everything needed to Cuba. Donations help provided medical and dental supplies and offset personal travel expenses. See the bulletin insert to donate.

From the Pen of Inspiration

The truths most plainly revealed in the Bible have been involved in doubt and darkness by learned men, who, with a pretense of great wisdom, teach that the Scriptures have a mystical, a secret, spiritual meaning not apparent in the language employed. These men are false teachers. It was to such a class that Jesus declared, "You know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God." Mark 12:24. The language of the Bible should be explained according to its obvious meaning, unless a symbol or figure is employed. Christ has given the promise: "If any man will do His will, he shall know of the doctrine." John 7:17. If men would but take the Bible as it reads, if there were no false teachers to mislead and confuse their minds, a work would be accomplished that would make angels glad and that would bring into the fold of Christ thousands upon thousands who are not wandering in error. (The Great Controversy, pp. 598, 599.)

MEMBERS PROPHECY STUDY CLASS: Tuesdays at 6:00 PM, we are studying a 24-part study designed specifically to help our members move from "student" to "teacher." This series focuses on building the confidence you need to lead your own Bible studies on Daniel and Revelation with people in our community. By exploring the deep correlations between Matthew 24 and the end-time prophecies of Revelation, we will bridge the gap between personal understanding and active ministry. Using Steven Bohr's study on Matthew 24 alongside insights from the Spirit of Prophecy, you will master the events leading to the close of probation and see how these prophetic themes intertwine. Our goal is to ensure you feel fully prepared, comfortable, and equipped to share these vital truths with clarity and ease. For questions please contact Matt Burton at (208) 416-8138.
