

GROWING YOUNG LEADERS

Hey Future Leader!

If you are reading this application, it means someone sees God's potential in you—and maybe even a call to make a difference in the world.

A local church pastor, conference youth director, teacher, principal, or friend believes you could serve as a pastor or educator in the Seventh-day Adventist Church. We're praying for young people like you to step up, grow, and make an impact.

If you feel called and are selected to join us, you'll receive:

- Scholarship funding for college
- Mentorship from experienced leaders
- Work experience opportunities
- Opportunities to serve the Church after graduation

This is your chance to explore your calling, grow your gifts, and see how God can use YOU to change lives. Let's see what amazing things God will do through you!

—The Growing Young Leaders Team

PURPOSE

To support students graduating from 12th grade in preparing for ministry as pastors or educators within the Seventh-day Adventist system. This scholarship-to-employment program will reduce the cost of higher education while providing mentorship and employment opportunities within the Pacific Union Conference.
