Our Mission

To honor God by nurturing a Christ-centered church family, mentoring all ages, building genuine relationships by growing and connecting together in love through selfless service as we share the hope of Christ's return. (Matthew 28:18-20)

NEED OUTREACH IDEAS?

Health and Wellness

- Free health fairs: Offer basic screenings like blood pressure, blood glucose checks, and BMI assessments.
- Cooking and nutrition classes: Teach plant-based whole-food cooking or the principles of the CREST/NEWSTART health programs.
- Walking or fitness groups: Host a weekly community walking club at a local park with healthy refreshments afterward.
- Mental health seminars: Provide stress-management workshops, grief recovery, or depression-to-recovery support groups.

Practical Community Service

- Food and clothing pantries: Partner with Adventist Community Services to distribute food boxes, fresh produce, or winter coats.
- Back-to-school drives: Give away free backpacks, school supplies, and children's haircuts before the school year starts.

- Elderly assistance: Form a "shop squad" to run errands, do yard work, or provide tech literacy help for seniors in the neighborhood.
- Disaster relief staging: Train members through ACS to act as a local emergency response distribution point during natural disasters.

Creative and Relational

- Park church or vespers: Host an outdoor Sabbath afternoon acoustic worship service or nature walk in a public space.
- English as a Second Language (ESL): Offer free conversational English classes as a practical tool for immigrants and newcomers.
- Children's holiday programs: Run community-wide Easter egg alternatives, Vacation Bible School (VBS), or wholesome autumn harvest festivals.
- Literature and media sharing: Distribute gentle, high-interest books or cards on wellness, family life, or Bible stories rather than traditional dense tracts.
