Hero's Journey Class

The life of discipleship was meant to be a daring adventure, but few experience that reality. Far too often, life degenerates into a boring and mundane existence. It doesn't have to be that way! The Hero's Journey, an exciting new class from FAST, shows you the secret. Discover how Christ recruits us, transforms us, walks with us through the deepest challenges, and ultimately equips us to share meaning and purpose with others. You may never quite look at Christianity the same again!

Short daily readings for 7 days. Sign up by June 30.

To support a peaceful space: for our nursing mothers, we kindly remind our church family that the Mothers' Room is reserved exclusively for nursing moms and their infants during the worship service.

For fathers and family members caring for toddlers, we have prepared a comfortable alternative space in the Youth Room, which will now serve as our Family Room during the service. This room is open each Sabbath during service for dads, and caregivers who need a place to supervise little ones who need some time out of the sanctuary. Thank you for helping us keep each space welcoming and appropriate for its intended purpose as we care for all our families.

The events of Christ's life, His death and resurrection, the prophecies pointing to these events, the mysteries of the plan of salvation, the power of Jesus for the remission of sins—to all these things they [His disciples] had been witnesses, and they were to make them known to the world. They were to proclaim the gospel of peace and salvation through repentance and the power of the Saviour.

Before ascending to heaven, Christ gave His disciples their commission. He told them that they were to be the executors of the will in which He bequeathed to the world the treasures of eternal life. You have been witnesses of My life of sacrifice in behalf of the world, He said to them. You have seen My labors for Israel. And although My people would not come to Me that they might have life, although priests and rulers have done unto Me as they listed, although they have rejected Me, they shall have still another opportunity of accepting the Son of God. You have seen that all who come to Me confessing their sins, I freely receive. Him that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out. To you, My disciples, I commit this message of mercy. It is to be given to both Jews and Gentiles—to Israel, first, and then to all nations, tongues, and peoples. All who believe are to be gathered into one church.

The gospel commission is the great missionary charter of Christ's kingdom. The disciples were to work earnestly for souls, giving to all the invitation of mercy. They were not to wait for the people to come to them; they were to go to the people with their message.

The disciples were to carry their work forward in Christ's name. Their every word and act was to fasten attention on His name, as possessing that vital power by which sinners may be saved. Their faith was to center in Him who is the source of mercy and power. In His name they were to present their petitions to the Father, and they would receive answer. They were to baptize in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Christ's name was to be their watchword, their badge of distinction, their bond of union, the authority for their course of action, and the source of their success. Nothing was to be recognized in His kingdom that did not bear His name and superscription.—The Acts of the Apostles, 27, 28.
