Oct. 31* – Reformation Day: Many people look upon Oct. 31 as the day to celebrate ghosts and goblins. But for Christians, this day is the commemoration date for the beginning of the Protestant Church. For on this day in 1517, Martin Luther nailed his 95 Theses to the door of Castle Church in the city of Wittenberg, Germany, as a protest against the Catholic Church for what he saw as its immoral conduct. As Protestants, we should celebrate this day as the turning point from the Dark Ages to the light of God’s truth for the world.

Calling all Veterans: We are trying to discover who all the veterans are in our congregation and what branch of the military they have served in. Please contact Jim Haynes as soon as possible with this information if you have served our country.

100th Birthday Celebration: Come and help Dick Sloss celebrate his 100th birthday this Wednesday, October 29th at 1:30 pm, at the Callahan Village lobby. 1801 NW Garden Valley Blvd.
